Slavic Linguistics Society

The Slavic Linguistics Society is an organization devoted to the systematic and scholarly study of the Slavic languages. Membership in the Society is open to all linguists regardless of field, theory, framework, or school. Members are entitled to present papers at annual meetings and receive the Journal of Slavic Linguistics, which is the official journal of the Slavic Linguistics Society. Individuals receive a subscription to JSL with their annual membership in the Slavic Linguistics Society. To join, go to <http://www.slaviclinguistics.org>.

SLS is governed by an Executive Board consisting of six members elected at the annual meeting for three-year staggered terms. The Executive Board negotiates arrangements for the annual meetings with host institutions. Meetings alternate between North America and Europe.

Guidelines for Contributors

JSL is intended to address issues in the description and analysis of Slavic languages of general interest to linguists, regardless of theoretical orientation. Papers dealing with any aspect of synchronic or diachronic Slavic phonetics, phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, or pragmatics will be considered, as long as they raise substantive problems of broad theoretical concern or propose significant descriptive generalizations. Comparative studies and formal analyses are especially encouraged. Submissions ranging from full-length articles to shorter remarks and replies will be considered, along with substantive reviews.

Manuscripts should be initially submitted to the general editorial address, jsl@indiana.edu, in .pdf and .doc(x) format. All submissions should be double-spaced throughout; copy should be anonymous and include a one-paragraph abstract. A computer file (preferably .doc[x]) will be requested before publication; we ask that you use only Unicode fonts. A detailed style sheet appears at the end of vol. 23, no. 1; it is available electronically from our webpage or from any of the editors.

Visit our World Wide Web page: <https://slavica.indiana.edu/journalListings/jsl>

Individuals should join the Slavic Linguistic Society (<http://www.slaviclinguistics.org>), which carries with it an annual subscription to JSL.
